2023 INDIGENOUS ART CONTEST WINNER ANNOUNCEMENT!!!

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the winners of the First Nations Health Consortium's Indigenous Art Contest 2023. Thank you for showcasing your talents and joining us in this celebration. We hope to see you participate again next year! It was a difficult choice with so many amazing entries that beautifully captured this year's Annual Report theme of "Bridging the Gaps".

SAVE THE DATE FOR FNHC'S 2023 YOUTH TEEPEE SUMMIT!

The First Nations Health Consortium is excited to announce that we will be holding our 2nd Annual Youth Teepee Summit to empower our youth to make change at Poundmaker's Lodge in St. Albert August 24, 25 & 26th. The Youth Teepee Summit is a gathering of many voices in sharing our knowledge, wisdom, and experiences. For the event, we are encouraging Indigenous youth ages 17 - 25 and Elders from each First Nation in Treaty 6, 7 and 8 to participate in this summit. The speakers will come from all different backgrounds and will share their personal journey and their current situation. Please visit our website to learn more: <https://abfnhc.com/tee-pee-summit/>

JORDAN'S CORNER

Jerleen Anderson-Sullivan has written a book titled "Jordan and Mom," which delves into the life of their mother, Virginia Anderson, and her beloved brother, Jordan River Anderson. The book serves as a valuable resource to understand the creation of Jordan's Principle, and provides readers with insights into Jordan's life and the love his family share for him.
